EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION WITH DISC

DISC is used worldwide. It is a simple and effective tool that provides a common language that helps you adapt to the styles of others.

Learn how to adapt your style and behaviours for more effective communication within your Teams, as well as with your Clients and Customers.

Great for:

- Leadership development
- Building effective Business teams
- Sales professionals building their Client base
- Enhanced Service skills

Workshops run for 3 hours and include:

- A self assessed DISC® profile
- A greater awareness of others and how to adapt to their style
- Approaches to more effective communication, interactions and relationships
- Interactive activities and a tailored workbook
- Tools to implement DISC awareness back in the workplace
