

Equal Opportunity Employer Policy (EEO Policy Statement)

EEO Policy brief & purpose

The Hub for Learning Equal Opportunity Employer Policy reflects our commitment to ensure equality and promote diversity in the workplace.

This Equal Employment Opportunity Policy is the pillar of a healthy and productive workplace. Everyone should feel supported and valued to work productively so we are invested in treating everyone with respect and consideration.

Scope

The Hub for Learning Equal Opportunity Employer policy applies to all employees, job candidates, contractors, stakeholders, partners and visitors.

Equal opportunity is for everyone, but it mainly concerns members of underrepresented groups – they're the ones who are traditionally disadvantaged in the workplace. We don't guarantee employment or promotions for people in those groups, but we will treat them fairly and avoid discriminating against them either via conscious or unconscious biases.

Policy elements

Being an Equal Opportunity Employer means that we provide the same opportunities for hiring, advancement and benefits to everyone without discriminating due to protected characteristics like:

Age Sex / Gender Sexual orientation Ethnicity/ Nationality Religion Disability Medical history.

What is an EEO policy?

We built our equal employment opportunity policy around preventive and affirmative actions to ensure fairness in all aspects of employment.

Our team is responsible for assessing our company's processes and ensuring they are bias-free. Whenever we find biases interfering, we will act immediately to refine our processes, train our people to combat their biases and protect possible victims of discrimination. We will give everyone the chance to work in an environment where their rights are respected.

Actions

To promote equal opportunity, we first ensure we follow EEOC regulations and EEO laws that apply to each part of our company.

We will also take additional actions to promote fairness and diversity as part of our equal employment opportunity policy. We will:

- Use inclusive language in all signs, documents and webpages
- Modify structures and facilities to accommodate people with disabilities.
- Provide parental leave and flexible work arrangement policies.
- Hire, train and evaluate employees through job-related criteria
- Allow employees to take religious or national holidays that aren't included in our company's official schedule.
- Train employees on communication and diversity
- Implement open door practices so employees can report discrimination more easily

Grievance Procedure

All supervisors and managers are responsible to use equal opportunity practices and make decisions based on objective, non-discriminatory criteria. Everyone should comply with our policy at all times.

Disciplinary Consequences

When someone discriminates, they will be subject to disciplinary action depending on the severity of their actions. For example, unintentionally offending a co-worker might warrant a reprimand, but harassing someone systematically might result in demotion or termination.
